Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurFrom her lookout on the first floor, Ginny watches and waits for her younger sister to return to the crumbling mansion that was once their idyllic childhood home. Vivien has not set foot in the house since she left, forty-seven years ago; Ginny, the reclusive moth expert, has rarely ventured outside it.

But with Vivien's arrival, dark, unspoken secrets surface. Told in Ginny's unforgettable voice, this debut novel tells a disquieting story of two sisters and the ties that bind - sometimes a little too tightly.Revue de presseI found listening to it enthralling as well as deeply unsettling... thanks to Sandra Duncan's performance. Her brittle, Cheltenham vowels are perfectly matched to the character of the evasive and deluded narrator. [With] the utterly brilliant matching of narrator to text... we feel we are listening to Ginny herself. --Christina Hardyment, The Times Layers of increasingly disturbing family secrets are gradually revealed in this beguiling and chilling story with a brilliant narration. --Rachel Redford, The Observer Adams succeeds in carefully building up an atmosphere of penumbral suspense, creeping towards a tense climax. --
